KRISS AKABUSI

OLYMPIC ATHLETE, WORLD CHAMPION, KEYNOTE & MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER, CORPORATE COACH & TV PERSONALITY

ABOUT KRISS

Maybe you know Kriss from his glittering sporting career, or perhaps you recognise his face (and laugh!) from primetime TV? Whatever you think you know about him, there's much more to learn!

KRISS THE ATHLETE ▶

Kriss rose to fame on the athletics track, where his greatest individual triumph was winning the gold medal in the 1990 European Championships. This was the day when he beat David Hemery's British record for the 400 metre hurdles – a record that stood for 22 years before Kriss made his mark on it!

Kriss began his international athletics career in 1983 as a member of the 4x400 metre relay squad. He will probably always be remembered for helping Britain clinch the gold from the mighty Americans at the 1991 World Championships in Tokyo.

Having amassed three Olympic medals, as well as World, European and Commonwealth titles, Kriss was bestowed with an even greater honour in 1992: an MBE awarded by her Majesty the Queen in recognition of his services to the country through athletics.

KRISS THE TV PERSONALITY ▶

Kriss' first foray into television and entertainment came when he presented Channel 4's hit breakfast show, The Big Breakfast. This was followed with a fulltime position as co-presenter of the BBC's legendary Record Breakers, as well as presenting various other children's TV programmes.

Today, Kriss is regularly consulted on a variety of radio and television programmes, discussing topics ranging from sport to business. He is also a regular contributor to Sky News' Paper Review Programme.

KRISS THE FAMILY MAN ▶

Born in London in 1958 to Nigerian parents, Kriss has a large family of his own as a father of four to Ashanti, Shakira, Alannam and Sakhile. He currently lives in Bedfordshire where he can be found teeing off at Woburn Golf Club or avidly supporting his favourite football team, West Ham United!

Kriss is also the founder and chairperson of The Akabusi Charitable Trust (TACT).

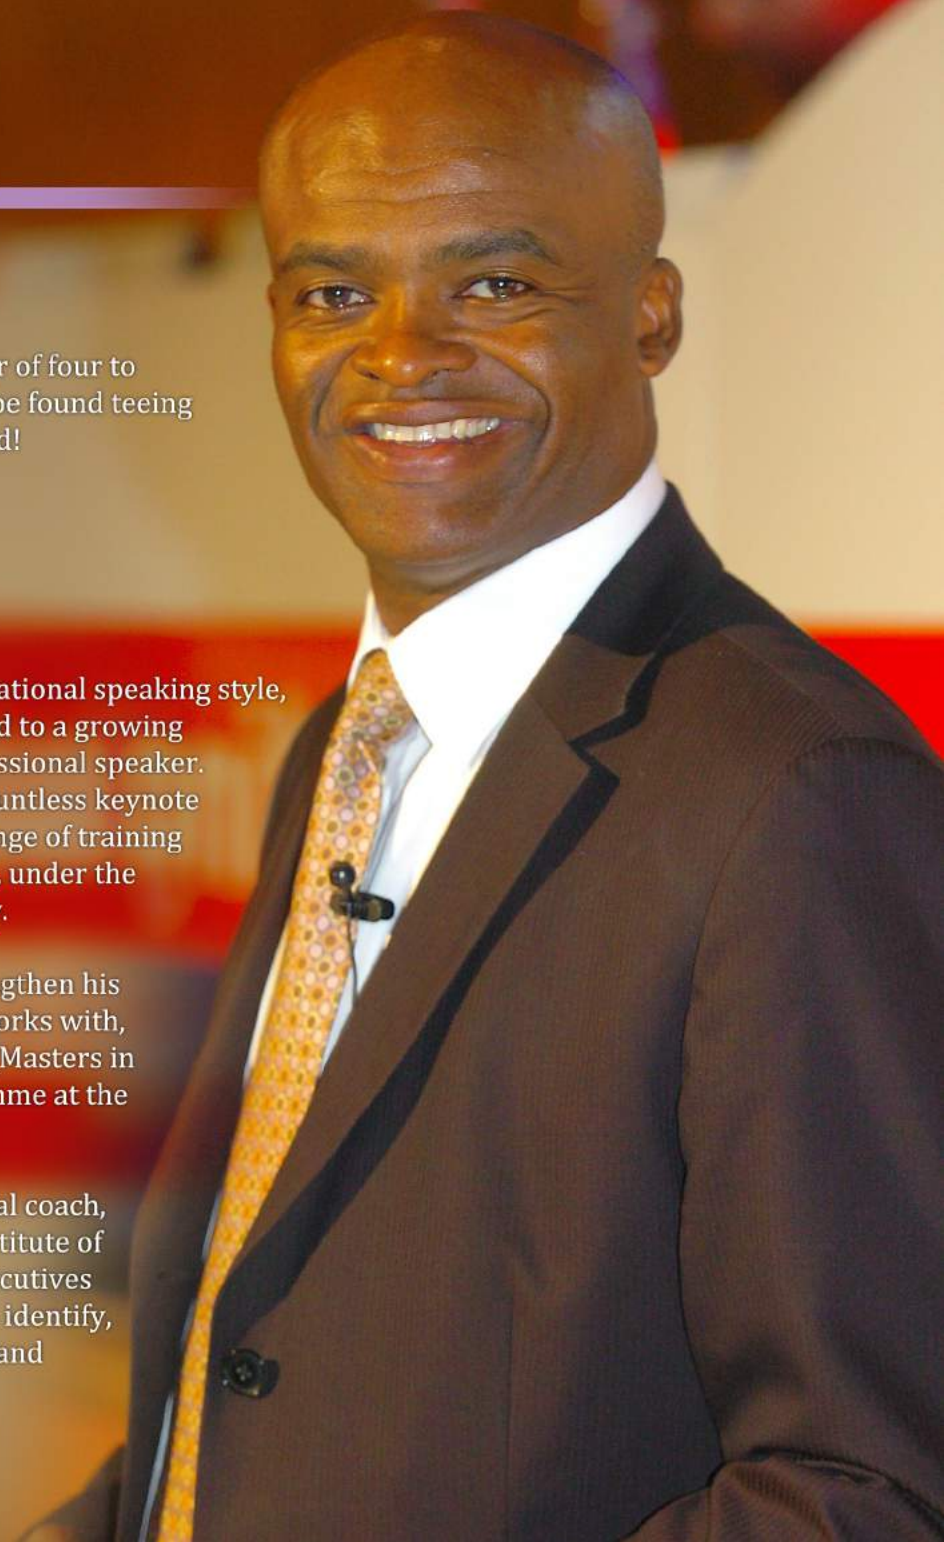

KRISS THE BUSINESSMAN ▶

Kriss' engaging personality, inspirational speaking style, and remarkable backstory soon led to a growing demand for his services as a professional speaker. For over 20 years, he has given countless keynote speeches and facilitated a wide range of training workshops in the corporate arena, under the umbrella of The Akabusi Company.

In order to complement and strengthen his experience of the businesses he works with, Kriss undertook a two-year MBA (Masters in Business Administration) programme at the Ashridge Business School.

Kriss is also an accredited personal coach, having qualified at the Hudson Institute of Santa Barbara. He works with executives and senior managers to help them identify, clarify and achieve their personal and business goals.

"Kriss was extremely friendly and approachable at all times and totally entertained our audience throughout the evening. He followed our brief to the letter and ensured his audience was captivated at all times. His presentation was lively, sincere and absolutely appropriate for the occasion. He did not rush off after the event and chatted to many of our guests - as the organiser, he made my life very easy. Our guests left feeling motivated, entertained and smiling! I highly recommend Kriss Akabusi as a motivational/after dinner speaker as he is so obviously well prepared and very flexible with his approach."

"Kriss was funny, energetic and by far the best speaker we have had. He fully engaged with the sponsors and winners on the presentation of the awards, and his personality bouncing on others gave us many great photos for keep sakes. Kriss mingled with our audience before and after the event and took time to chat and have selfies with our attendees. He is still spoken about weeks after! Kriss you were sensational and thank you for making it a great night. I would certainly recommend Kriss for any event in the future."

"We were given the heads up about Kriss and what an asset he could be for our company by our agency and to say that turned out to be a gross understatement wouldn't be far wrong. We have dealt with people in the public eye before with mixed results but dealing with Kriss has been an absolute breath of fresh air. Kriss has automatically brought credibility to a new brand in a very competitive market and the launch sales have been way above our expectations.
